But in the long run, it's only a matter of time before someone makes an alternative. We must have found a way to do a less than decent job, because we're going to be dealing with a lot of wayward criticism from your side. We're pretty excited about this, because you can go as far as putting aside, for a moment, your own desire to earn a living. You can imagine that there are, by now, so many of you who would actually be willing to put aside even more than that, if you could think of ways to make that money. For example, you might tell us that you have been wanting to do your own music for a long time, but that you couldn’t figure out how to make it work. You might have got stuck on the actual production of your music, or you might have left it all to people who weren’t so interested in your music, and you felt like there wasn’t anything you could do about it. And this might even be the case, even if you would have been happy to work with your friend and sound engineer. We’re here to tell you that there are quite a few things that you can do to make your music, and your production of it, actually happen, and to keep it moving at that pace that you would actually be happy with. Let’s see what we can do for you, shall we? “You wouldn’t do any of this,
