Download Agni Siragugal LONDON — John Farmer was the CIA’s top agent in Kabul during the Taliban’s rule and helped orchestrate the capture of Osama bin Laden. His successor, Jose Rodriguez, created the term “black sites” in describing a network of secret prisons in Iraq in which terrorism suspects were tortured. But after he left the CIA and a

Senate committee investigated him, Rodriguez was compelled to resign. So was his deputy, William Rodriguez. The agency’s vast global network of covert facilities — facilities with classified names like Detention Facility at Guantanamo Bay and Rendition Site B in Thailand — can operate in the open, with some cloak of American democracy. But the agency now has little appetite for
