Efficacy of a multimodal pain education program for patients with chronic low back pain: a randomized controlled trial. There is some empirical evidence that education programs can improve pain-related outcomes in patients with chronic pain. This study investigates the efficacy of a multimodal pain education program in patients with chronic low back pain (LBP). A randomized controlled trial was performed to evaluate the efficacy of a multimodal pain education program on pain-related outcomes, healthrelated quality of life (HRQOL), function, and patients' knowledge regarding LBP. A total of 186 patients with chronic LBP were included in the study. Patients were randomized into the intervention group and the control group. The intervention group received the multimodal education program in addition to usual care. The primary outcome measure was pain intensity measured with a visual analog scale. Secondary outcome measures were function, HROOL, and knowledge about LBP. After 12 weeks of treatment, pain intensity decreased in both groups, but a significantly more prominent reduction was observed in the intervention group. Pain intensity at baseline was associated with poorer HRQOL and functioning. In the subgroup analyses, patients who received the multimodal education program showed a more prominent improvement in pain intensity and HRQOL compared with controls. HRQOL improved in both groups. A significant improvement in LBP knowledge was observed. A multimodal pain education program can effectively reduce pain intensity and improve HRQOL and function in patients with chronic LBP.Title: Dream with me...... Welcome to my room and hopefully you like it. Note: This is strictly a fantasy based story. I don't want to offend anyone and just want the fun of being able to dream about being with a girl whom I will not have to deal with.

The girl turned around and faced the blonde girl. She smiled and then bent her head to the blonde's shoulder. The blonde smiled and hugged the girl as the girl hugged her back. The two girls held each other and were now in a tight hug. The blonde kissed the girl on the cheek as she was pulled away from the girl. The two girls were slightly flushed and already in a couple's embrace. The blonde looked at the girl and then quickly looked around ba244e880a
