

Star Craft Keygen

January 16, 2020 3:46 Hello. I have old Starcraft and Brood War CDs with my original CD key and would like to use it in the Battle.net app to be able to play. I have been looking for information on how to change my CD key for Starcraft II and I have found several sites that offer the same. The problem is, as you can see, most of these sites require me to pay for a CD key, and although these authors sometimes post information on how to do this, they also only let me do it after payment. This is wrong and I'm sorry I can't find a way to do it for free without paying for a CD key.
